A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

I am delighted to welcome you to the Morris Arboretum's 2013 Moonlight & Roses gala, Philadelphia's premier summer social event! This celebration is an opportunity for our friends to gather each year and enjoy an evening of dinner and dancing under the stars. Contributions to Moonlight & Roses also provide critical support for the Morris Arboretum's vital mission. Today, stewardship of our historic landscapes and our education and research programs are more critical than ever. Your generosity is essential to the ongoing work of this renowned public garden and center for education.

We are so pleased to recognize Nina Schneider as our 2013 Moonlight & Roses honoree. Nina's deep involvement in the Morris Arboretum as a volunteer, and her knowledge and experience in landscape design and horticultural display, have been a tremendous benefit to this institution. We are honored to celebrate Nina's many contributions to the entire Morris Arboretum community.

Moonlight & Roses has helped to build and maintain the Morris Arboretum's outstanding living collections and unique gardens. Funds raised through the 2013 gala will directly support the Arboretum's operations and, specifically, education programs that further the Arboretum's mission of connecting plants, people and place. Thank you for joining us tonight to celebrate the Morris Arboretum, to honor Nina Schneider, and to advance the Arboretum's future through your generous support!

Paul W. Meyer

The F. Otto Haas Executive Director

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 32nd annual Moonlight & Roses celebration! We thank you for joining us in celebration and support of this remarkable institution and all it represents to our community.

The Morris Arboretum is delighted to recognize Nina Schneider as our 2013 Moonlight & Roses honoree. Nina has been volunteering at the Morris Arboretum since 1990 in many capacities including the design and maintenance of our garden displays, the annual Plant Sale, and the redesign and renovation of the Arboretum's Gift Shop as well as its buying and merchandising. She has served on the Arboretum's Advisory Board of Managers since 1999. Nina currently chairs the Horticulture Committee and serves on the Physical Facilities Committee.

Thanks to your generous contributions, funds raised at this year's gala will directly support the Arboretum's operations and education programs. The Arboretum's education initiatives encourage the connection of plants, people, and place while supporting environmental awareness and stewardship.

We thank our wonderful committee members for their hard work and creativity in making this year's gala a night to remember. We are also grateful for the Arboretum staff whose help in planning this event was immeasurable.

Thank you for joining us. We look forward to seeing you soon in the gardens! Sincerely,

Ellen and Jay Hass
